"How amiable are thy tabernacles, O Lord of Hosts"

Psalm 84:1

ANNIVERSARY HYMN

Beautiful Saviour!
King of Creation!
Son of God and Son of Man.
Truly I'd love Thee,
Truly I'd serve Thee,
Light of my soul. my Joy. my Crown.

Fair are the meadows,
Fair are the woodlands.
Robed in flowers of blooming spring;
Jesus is fairer;
Jesus is purer;
He makes our sorrowing spirit sing.

Fair is the sunshine,
Fair is the moonlight,
Bright the sparkling stars on high;
Jesus shines brighter,
Jesus shines purer,
Than all the angels in the sky.

Beautiful Saviour!
Lord of the nations!
Son of God and Son of Man!
Glory and honor,
Praise, adoration,
Now and forever more be Thine!

"The House of God, which is the Church of the living God, the pillar and ground of the truth."

Mrs. Elizabeth Miller is the oldest active member of Trinity. She joined Sunday School at the age of ten in 1893. She regularly attends services and is active in organizations.

Mrs. Emma Brantner, 95 years old, Mr. John Kunkel, 94, and Mrs. Anna Paxton, 88, are the three oldest inactive members of Trinity.

HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

Seventy-five years ago the initial steps for planting a church in the fast-growing middle-western section of Baltimore were taken by the Home Mission Board and the General Board of Church Extension and the Lutheran Ministers' Association of Baltimore, Md.

In 1892 Dr. Ide accepted a call from the Board of Home Missions of The General Synod and The Local Church Extension Society to do Mission Work in the suburbs of Baltimore.

The Rev. Edwin E. Ide was commissioned to canvass this area. He began his work on April 17, 1893. Dr. Charles S. Albert, then pastor of St. Mark's Lutheran Church, gave him a letter of introduction to Mrs. J. G. Vogt, who lived in this section on Frederick Ave. From her he learned of various Lutheran families living in this area. Numbered among this group were the Alberts, Hoffmeisters, Kornmanns, Landwehrs, Romosers, Springers, Vogels, Leydeckers, Eichners, Meisters, Bruniers, Mohrs and others.

By May 17, 1893, Dr. Ide succeeded in interesting some fifty families in this new venture. The first informal meeting was held in a local business establishment of the Vogt Bros. The immediate problem which presented itself was the securing of a suitable building for worship. Radcliffe's Hall, corner of Pratt Street and Fulton Avenue, was obtained and the first regular service was held on June 11, 1893, with an attendance of thirty-eight persons. After a few months, formal organization of the congregation was effected October 1, 1893, with a Charter Membership of forty—nineteen men and twenty-one women.

The first Council consisted of Rev. E. E. Ide (Chairman ex-officio), J. G. Vogt, W. Harris, G. Sponsler, W. Ealey, H. Vogt, F. Brinkman, H. Kornmann and G. Romoser.

On October 3, 1893, the church was admitted to the Maryland Synod.

Radcliffe's Hall having become too small for the rapidly growing congregation, a Chapel was leased, corner of Hollins Street and Calverton Road, and was occupied December 6, 1894. The congregation then numbered eighty members and the Sunday School, which was organized on the same day as the church, October 1, 1893, numbered one hundred.

On December 1, 1895, a permanent site, for $3,850, was purchased, seventy-six feet by one hundred feet, on the northwest corner of Baltimore and Pulaski Streets.

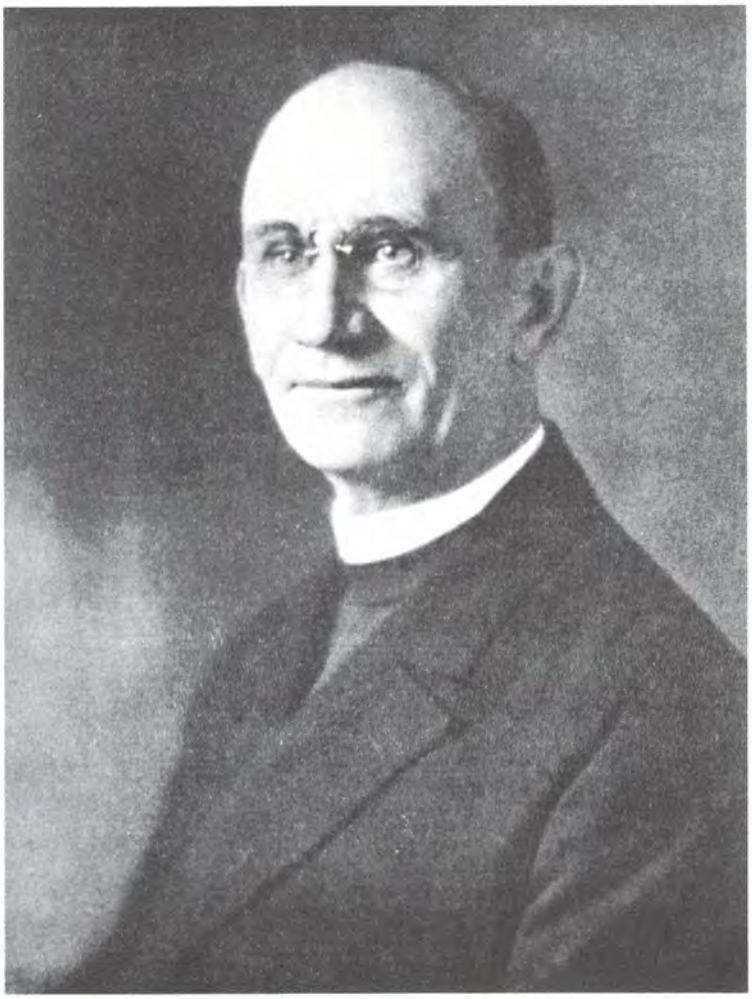
On July 26, 1896, a frame chapel, forty-five by seventy feet, was dedicated costing, including all appointments, $4,500. It was the pioneer building in the square. On July 31, 1899, the Mission declared itself self-supporting.

A progressive congregation realizing the need for a larger and more permanent edifice, on October 13, 1902, at a congregational meeting unanimously decided to lay plans to raise funds for a permanent church edifice. This effort eventuated in the erecting of the first story of what is the present beautiful structure. The cornerstone was laid July, 1904, and the first service in the new building was held November 6, 1904, and was formally dedicated on November 13, 1904, and cost, including furnishings, $25,000.

During the decade which followed the congregation increased rapidly in numbers under the aggressive leadership of Dr. Ide, a gifted preacher and faithful pastor.

On March 21, 1915, the completed church was dedicated, the building is seventy-three by one hundred feet, the entire cost being $70,000. Externally and internally it has been admired for its simplicity and churchliness.

Trinity's beauty has been enriched by many choice "memorials" from the time of the completion of the present edifice until now. We refrain from listing them here but cannot forego expressing our thanks for the devotion and loyalty to the members who have aided so materially in making our church a joy to behold.



REV. EDWIN E. IDE, D.D.

Founder and Pastor

1893 - 1928

Pastor Emeritus

1928 - 1939

"Strength and Beauty Are In Thy Sanctuary"

Rev. Edwin Ernest Ide, D.D. was born October 20, 1863 in Baltimore. He was the son of Rev. and Mrs. Ernest C. Ide. He was baptized by his grandfather, Rev. William Ide, and confirmed by his father, who for many years was a member of The Lutheran Synod of Maryland.

His early education was received in the public schools at Gardenville, Md. and Jersey City, N. J. Responding to the heavenly call to become a minister of the Gospel, he entered Missionary Institute at Selinsgrove, Pa. Here he received his pre-theological education and later was graduated from Gettysburg Seminary in 1891. In the same year he was ordained to the Christian ministry by the Maryland Synod. His first Parish consisted of three congregations — St. Paul's, Greensburg, Md., Quincy and Rouzerville, Pa.

During the years from 1915 to 1928, Trinity reached her highwater mark under Dr. Ide. It was a period of great activity and expansion. But, as in the course of human events, many changes take place, a faithful pastor began to feel the weight of years as well as the exacting labors entailed in ministering to so large a congregation. Thirty-five years was to be the prescribed limit of the active service of the Founder and first Pastor. Failing health forced Dr. Ide to resign his pastorate in 1928, only to be honored by being made Pastor Emeritus by a devoted and loyal congregation. He died January 3rd, 1939 and was buried from Trinity January 5th.

REV. FREDERICK W. LINDKE

PASTOR 1928 - 1932

The one chosen to take up the labors where Dr. Ide left off was the Rev. Frederick W. Lindke who was called to be the next pastor. Rev. Lindke served in our Puerto Rico Mission Field prior to his coming to Trinity. He began his labors in the new field on October 1, 1928, and was duly installed on the 24th Sunday after Trinity, November 18, 1928. His ministry covered a period of four years which must ever be looked upon as a transition period of "stress and storm" filled with perplexing problems. During his ministry he was instrumental in organizing a Women's Missionary Society, and in leading the membership of Trinity to become "benevolence minded." These two achievements aided mightily in the future progress of the church. Rev. Lindke resigned as pastor in September, 1932.

The church was not long without a pastor, for in December of 1932, a call was extended the Reverend P. S. Baringer. The call was accepted and Rev. and Mrs. Baringer came to Baltimore on the first Sunday in February 1933.

He was born January 11, 1884 in Bucks County, Penna., the son of Christian Frederick and Magdalena Baringer. His early education was secured in the public schools of Penna., later graduating from Perkiomen School in 1907.

DR. P. S. BARINGER

PASTOR 1933 - 1954

He taught School in Penna., was employed by the Philadelphia and Reading Railroad and later was an instructor in business at Perkiomen School, Pennsburg, Penna.

Later studying at Muhlenberg College he won the President's prize and a scholarship in German. He graduated from Mt. Airy Theological Seminary and was ordained in 1914 to the Ministerium of Penna. at St. John's Lutheran Church, Easton, Penna. Then he served as Pastor at Redeemer Lutheran Church, Phila., Penna., Redeemer Lutheran Church, Kingston, New York, Sherwood Parish, Ontario, Canada. Trinity Lutheran Church Hamilton, Ontario and Advent Lutheran Church, Newark, New Jersey before coming to Trinity.

Pastor Baringer was a member of the Board of Inner Mission of Balto. and the Lutheran Deaconess Motherhouse. Also served on the Home Missions Committee of the Maryland Synod. He received his Doctor of Divinity Degree on June 3, 1940 at Muhlenberg College.

Also from 1933 to 1944 Dr. Baringer was ably assisted and the congregation efficiently served by Deaconess Sister Louise C. Klein. Her ministry left an abiding influence on the life of the congregation and it's members individually.

During Dr. Baringer's pastorate the church was fortunate to have the fellowship and assistance of the following pastors: The Reverend William F. Wunder, The Reverend Matthew I. Wiencke, The Reverend Paul Lottich, The Reverend Delmar L. Dyreson, The Reverend Victor R. Gold, and the Reverend Charles J. Hines, D. D.

SISTER LOUISE C. KLEIN

While Dr. Baringer was with us our church underwent extensive renovations. Many changes were made, such as complete Chancel furnishing, altar and pulpit hanging, enlarging the beautiful marble altar, new carpet, new lighting fixtures, new heating equipment, and redecorating the church throughout together with many other improvements too numerous to set forth in complete detail. All this called for an expenditure of over $40,000. Many memorial gifts were secured together with generous contributions of money. Naturally, the balance of expenditures had to be satisfied through mortgage loan and the selling of debentures among Trinity's members and friends. By 1956 we were again debt free.

Dr. and Mrs. Baringer were privileged to labor together in the interest of Trinity and the Kingdom for almost two decades when God saw fit to call from this mortal scene the pastor's devoted wife. Her loyalty and devotion to her home and her church was a constant inspiration in the work of the church.

After more than twenty years of service Trinity was again to be without a pastor as the beloved Dr. Baringer was forced to resign because of a recurring heart ailment and was called to his Master's bosom November 6, 1954. He was buried from Trinity November 9th. He was laid to rest in Monte Repose Cemetery in Kingston, N.Y.

REV. ALBERT R. BURKHARDT

PASTOR 1954 - 1957

REV. DIXON A. YASTE

PASTOR 1957 - 1964

Dr. Baringer was succeeded by the Reverend Albert R. Burkhardt who came with us September 1954. Times and neighborhoods were starting to change and Pastor Burkhardt brought some fresh ideas to the congregation. Evanagelism services were held and membership grew temporarily. The Order of St. John was organized to train boys to serve on the altar.

After two and a half years Pastor Burkhardt left us to accept a call to Zion Lutheran Church, Middletown, Maryland.

The Reverend Dixon A. Yaste came to serve Trinity and was installed June 1957. He worked diligently to maintain and expand the membership in a fast changing neighborhood. Many of our dedicated members moved and joined outlying congregations.

Pastor Yaste was instrumental in organizing the Altar Guild, Companionship Club and developing the Order of St. John. He also started a Friday evening social once a month. Entertainment and refreshments were provided. This was done to encourage social interest among members of the congregation.

Pastor Yaste left us to accept a call to Trinity Church, Reisterstown, Maryland, January 1964.

REV. RONALD F. MEASE
PASTOR 1964 - 1967

REV. OSCAR W. CARLSON
VICE PASTOR 1967 - 1968

Our pulpit was filled temporarily by Reverend Willis Brenneman until Reverend Ronald F. Mease accepted Trinity's call in July 1964. The neighborhood steadily declined and many members left. After three years of service Pastor Mease resigned and accepted an appointment by the Maryland Synod to serve as director of Inner City and Migrant Ministry for the Maryland Council of Churches.

In September 1967 the Reverend Dr. Oscar W. Carlson was appointed Vice Pastor by Dr. J. Frank Fife, President of the Maryland Synod. He has stepped into the breach and has served us faithfully, holding the remnants of our congregation together. He visits our sick and shut-ins and tends to the spiritual needs of the congregation. Dr. Carlson has agreed to continue with us through 1968.

MR. KARL V. PETZ

ORGANIST

CHURCH MUSIC

Fortunate indeed is the congregation that is able to enhance its worship service with a challenging and appropriate musical program. With an organist and choir director in the person of Mr. Karl V. Petz who has served in this capacity for over forty-three years, Trinity has been richly blessed. While the personnel of Trinity's choirs have changed from time to time during the years, its members have rendered invaluable and consecrated service. The oft quoted, "music is the handmaid of religion," has been admirably exemplified in the services of Trinity throughout the years.

The present Moller Pipe Organ cost $3,000 and was dedicated January 12, 1919. It has been in continuous service for almost 50 years — and from expert authority, we learn it can give good service for many years to come.

ORGANIZATIONS

LADIES' AID SOCIETY

The Ladies' Aid Society is the oldest organization of the church. It has always been ready to help Trinity both financially and with their labors. Acting as hostess for Trinity when the need arose for serving dinners to visiting groups was one of their big contributions. Raising money to help the church was always one of their goals.

The devoted women began their work March 24, 1894 and have been faithful ever since. The first officers of the Society were: President, Mrs. William Harris; Vice-president, Mrs. Caroline Macke; Secretary, Miss R. Eichner; Treasurer, Mrs. M. Ittner.

LUTHERAN CHURCH WOMEN OF TRINITY (WOMEN'S MISSIONARY SOCIETY)

The Women's Missionary Society was organized under the leadership of Mrs. Frederick W. Lindke on April 22, 1929. On that night the first officers were elected. They were: President, Mrs. Fred W. Lindke; Vice-president, Mrs. Herbert E. Lee; Secretary, Miss Catherine Gerbig; Statistical Secretary, Mrs. John Gibbs; Treasurer, Mrs. Anna Bartscher; Organist, Miss Emma Brunier.

The purpose of the Society was to interest the congregation in missions and to help carry out the work of missions in the United Lutheran Church. The Society began with 84 charter members of which 12 are still living and 3 are still active in the group.

In 1963 the Missionary Society joined the Lutheran Church Women of America and continued to function as in the past.

THE ALTAR GUILD

The Altar Guild began under the leadership of Pastor Yaste and Edward Pindell. The initial monthly meeting was held in October 1958 and the first officers were elected, they were: President, Mrs. Betty Dorsey; Vice-president, Mrs. Ida Wilson; Secretary, Mrs. Eileen McAfee and Treasurer, Mrs. Delia Pindell.

The main object of the Guild is to keep the altars clean, supplied and in readiness for all worship services. Before the Guild was formed, a committee of the wives of councilmen and other dedicated ladies of the congregation performed these services.

TRINITY'S YOUTH

On November 20, 1894 a group known as The Young People's Society was organized. Later they were reorganized as the Christian Endeavor Society September 1902. Again, in September 1903, they were renamed The Trinity Helpers. They paid dues and worked diligently together giving plays, holding festivals, etc. in order to help Trinity financially to reduce her tremendous debt. Originally the organization was started and continued by the young girls of the congregation but in March 1907 the first male members were admitted.

During the Twenties the Luther League was started. The young people promoted many interesting activities and enjoyed the fellowship of the State Leagues and of the Church at Large.

Three members from one of Trinity's families met their Chosen Ones within the League, courted and were married.

Because of the changing conditions in our area and the declining membership the Luther League disbanded in 1967.

MARRIED COUPLES CLUB

While Reverend Hines was serving as assistant to Pastor Baringer for Trinity, four young couples namely, Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Titus, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Fritz, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Kelley and Mr. and Mrs. William Pearce conceived the idea of a Married Couples Club. In February 1954 along with other interested members they had their first meeting and elected officers. It was decided that no husband and wife could be officers at the same time. The first officers were: President, Mr. Richard Fritz; Vice-president, Mr. Douglas Titus; Treasurer, Mrs. Jeanette Pearce and Secretary, Mrs. Marilyn Van Tassel.

The Club was primarily social for the members and their families but through their existence they contributed generously of their finances and labors to various projects. Their favorite ones concerned children. Helping with vacation bible school and giving money towards the junior choir robes were two of many worthy efforts.

The Club disbanded in the fall of 1967.

COMPANIONSHIP CLUB

In March 1960 a social club for senior citizens of Trinity and the neighborhood was started by Reverend Dixon Yaste and Miss Edna Wagner.

The group met in the Sunday School room twice a month in the daytime, had a short religious service followed by a business meeting. After lunching together they played games or just conversed and made new friends. After several meetings it was decided to invite younger than senior people to join the Club and the membership swelled considerably.

Numerous bus trips are held throughout the year and money accumulated in the treasury is used for charitable contributions and financial gifts to Trinity. The first officers elected were: President, Mrs. Helen Durham; Secretary, Mrs. Ethel Schmidt, and Treasurer, Mr. Charles Green.

WHITE GIFT SERVICE

The one service for which Trinity Lutheran Church was well known throughout West Baltimore was our annual White Gift Service which was always held the Sunday evening preceding Christmas. The first White Gift Service ever held in Trinity was on Sunday, December 21, 1924. These services were held each year for 41 years—the last one on Sunday, December 19, 1965.

For 39 years these services were under the personal direction of Karl V. Petz. They became more popular each year due to the unique presentation of our story of "The Birth of Jesus".

The grateful thanks of our congregation goes to the loyal cast who brought this beautiful story to the members of Trinity Church each year.

During the early years even standing room was at a premium on the evenings of our presentations. These services will long be remembered by the members and friends of our congregation and neighboring churches.

Gifts of food and money were brought to the church to be distributed among needy members of the parish.

Many young people of our congregation have served in the two great wars. In World War I (1917-1918) seventy-two men and two ladies served. Some were wounded and gassed but all returned safely. In World War II (1941-1945) two hundred and eight men and one lady served. We were not as fortunate as before and six men gave their lives for their country. They were: Carl H. Burkowske., William H. Close, Jr., Franklin H. Linthicum, James R. McAfee, James F. Phillips and Joseph F. Saffran.

In the Korean War five men from Trinity served their country. In the War in Vietnam, four men from Trinity were called to served.

Trinity is proud to have so many patriotic young men and women answer their country's call.

The days ahead for Trinity are in the capable hands of the Future Development Committee. It is not the intention of the remaining members of our church for Trinity to "wither and die on the vine" at Baltimore and Pulaski Streets. The Future Development Committee is planning to continue the Lord's work as the Holy Spirit gives us new directions. Godspeed these faithful workers!
